Tamir Saland
Senior Associate

Long Island, NY Office:
60 Broadhollow Rd.
Melville, NY 11747

Tamir Saland is an attorney admitted to practice in New York who focuses on civil litigation, consumer protection matters, and complex defense litigation. He has experience handling cases through all stages of litigation, including pleadings, discovery, depositions, motion practice, mediations, arbitrations, court appearances, and trial preparation and trials.

Throughout his legal career, Tamir has successfully managed high-volume caseloads in both state and federal courts, representing clients in a wide range of matters. His experience includes defending complex claims, advocating for consumers in individual and class action litigation, and developing strategic approaches to achieve favorable resolutions. He is known for his organized and disciplined approach to case management, client communication, and litigation strategy.

In addition to his litigation experience, Tamir has supervised and trained support staff, coordinated all phases of case preparation, and worked closely with clients to develop practical and efficient solutions tailored to their objectives.

Tamir earned his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law and holds a Bachelor of Science in Business with a minor in Psychology from Indiana University Kelley School of Business.
